HIGHLIGHTS

- ◆ Remained open during the covid-19 pandemic, providing comprehensive treatment services and education to the residents of Columbiana, Jefferson and Harrison Counties.
- ◆ Carefully followed CDC guidelines by implementing safety precautions and providing PPE to both new and existing clients who wished to receive their services face-to-face.
- ◆ Clinicians quickly implemented telehealth to continue much needed mental health and substance use treatment during the pandemic. Clients were trained in using Zoom and linked to online support meetings.
- ◆ Insights groups were started to better meet clients where they are using evidence-based Motivational Interviewing techniques centered on the stages of change.
- ◆ Parenting and Anger Management groups continued to thrive and meet the needs of our various referral sources, including courts and schools.
- ◆ 2 staff members were trained in EMDR (Eye Movement Desensitization Reprocessing) therapy, which adds to the repertoire of approaches implemented to treat trauma and a wide array of other symptoms.
- ◆ Continued to host 16 support meetings a week at the Oxford House, which included 3 new meetings (Crystal Meth Anonymous, Families Anonymous and Big Book Study).
- ◆ Recovery Housing continued to operate with a total of 35 residents.
- ◆ Project Dawn was awarded a grant from the Ohio Overdose Prevention Network (OPN) in Columbiana County and the Jefferson County Health Department.
- ◆ Partnered with the Columbiana County Mental Health and Recovery Services Board and the state of Ohio to receive a naloxone blitz, which allowed us to distribute 242 naloxone (Narcan) kits to local businesses and community members in the 43920 zip code.
- ◆ Launched an Online Naloxone Service, which is a no-cost way for individuals to order a Narcan kit online and receive it confidentially by mail. 137 kits were distributed via mail.
- ◆ Steering Clear continued to be held at the Best Western Plus Dutch Haus Inn and Suites in Columbiana. There were 4 sessions held and 107 participants served.
- ◆ Publicist Cathy Brownfield composed 52 articles to be published online and in the local newspapers reaching individuals in Columbiana, Jefferson and surrounding counties.
- ◆ Education Department was awarded a Drug-Free Communities (DFC) grant in Jefferson County.
- ◆ Education Department installed a Question, Persuade, and Refer (QPR) Gatekeeper Training for Suicide Prevention.
- ◆ Education Department partnered with WTOV9 to launch the You Be You campaign, which targeted teenagers.
- ◆ Prevention Educators created a virtual toolkit that includes evidence-based lessons for parents, teachers and students, which can be accessed on the Education Department Facebook page and YouTube channel.
- ◆ Awarded a Prevention Education Professional Development grant to expand services into Harrison County.
